The Northcott Theatre now manages the Barnfield Theatre in Exeter's city centre. We also programme performances at the Great Hall, located next to the Northcott Theatre. This text indicates if an event is taking place at either of these venues.

There's this moment, right before the curtain opens, where the air is electric, and the audience, cast and crew all share one feeling.

It's a moment of pure anticipation, knowing that we're about to have an experience that is totally unique,
and we'll share it all together;

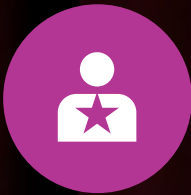

Does your heart skip a beat when the lights go down?

Do you hold your breath for just a second as the magic is about to begin?

Join us for some amazing experiences this season.
We can't wait to share them with you.

NORTHCOTT FUTURES FESTIVAL

11 – 14 JULY 2023

Northcott Futures' highly successful festival of new and developing work is back this July, showcasing some of the most innovative and exciting theatre makers the South West has to offer.

From emerging artists to established theatre companies, comedy and drama to experimental theatre, this year's festival will be produced by Exeter Northcott and Doohickie Productions, a new production company founded by alumni from the Futures Programme.

Check our website for all show information!

A ROOM OF ONE'S OWN

The award-winning Dyad Productions (Christmas Gothic, I, Elizabeth, Female Gothic, and Austen's Women) bring a twenty-first century take on Virginia Woolf's blisteringly brilliant pre-TED talk to the stage. Take a wry, amusing, and incisive trip through the history of literature, feminism, and gender. Meet Charlotte Brontë, Jane Austen, Aphra Behn, and Shakespeare's sister – Judith!

Rebecca Vaughan performs Woolf's 1928 exploration of the impact of poverty and sexual inequality on intellectual freedom and creativity. Introducing a different way to look at our creativity, it even comments on what life will be like in the 2020s!

Come and be amused, challenged and changed.

DO YOU BELIEVE IN GHOSTS?

Theatres are alive. They all have stories to tell when the lights go out. And they all have a theatre ghost.

This is a brand-new concept: a haunting night at the theatre; an original play unlike anything you have seen, or experienced, before; a new way of ghost storytelling!

Settle in for a thrilling night of tales, mystery, murder – and ghosts – as our 'paranormal experts' tell the most fascinating ghost stories. But, nothing is what it seems, as time will tell throughout the evening...

Something seems off. Follow the clues and brace yourself for a haunting night of theatre.

Are you brave enough?

Dare you!

FRANKENSTEIN

A new story inspired by the classic novel by Mary Shelley
Written and directed by Séan Aydon

1943. Whilst Europe tears itself apart, two women hide from their past at what feels like the very end of the world. And one of them has a terrifying story to tell...

"I created life. You don't believe me but it's true. I didn't start from scratch of course, but out of portions and odd ends I made something – alive. But what I created... it wasn't a superhuman. It was a monster."

This new thriller, inspired by the classic gothic novel and complete with a stunning original score, explores the very fabric of what makes us human and the ultimate cost of chasing "perfection".

Frankenstein is an electrifying reimagining of the world's favourite horror story that will set minds and spines tingling.

HELP! I THINK I'M A NATIONALIST

From Seamas Carey (creator of The Reason Why podcast), comes the controversial sell-out comedy show on identity, second homes, xenophobia and bagpipes.

*Who am I? Where do I belong?
Is it OK to be a nationalist?*

Cornwall is at a tipping point. House prices soar, the population shifts, tensions rise. Some people see it as a separate nation, whilst others see it as a prime holiday destination and playground for the rich.

Seamas Carey is confused. He is desperately trying to understand.

He's watched a wave of gentrification sweep through his rural hometown. Could closing borders and nationalism be the answer? Where's the line between pride and power? What happens when it all goes too far?

Seamas needs help. He needs your help.

SIZWE BANZI IS DEAD

Sometimes you must die so you can live.

A powerful and joyous new production of the seminal play. Port Elizabeth in Apartheid South Africa. Sizwe Banzi, an African worker, has a passbook stating he was supposed to return home three days ago. Without a valid passbook, Sizwe cannot work and therefore cannot support his wife and four children.

After finding a dead body with a passbook valid to work in Port Elizabeth, Sizwe must decide whether his name defines who he is, or should he steal the dead man's identity in order to provide for his family. As he steps into the photographic studio, he must make that decision.

Produced by MAST Mayflower Studios.

MARY & THE MATRONS

It's the start of the Swinging Sixties, Harold Macmillan says We've Never Had It So Good and dauntless Dr Mary Sheridan is on a nationwide inspection tour of "Mental Deficiency Hospitals", where many learning-disabled children lived out their childhoods.

It's also the start of the Tricky Twenty-Twenties, and Millie Moore, a learning-disabled school leaver, wants to follow her star.

Both Mary and Millie know things never work till everyone sings from the same song sheet. Can Mary change the system in time for Millie to get her chance?

Inspired by the vivid inspection reports of Dr Mary Sheridan, this workshop performance of a hilarious and humane new musical-in-development features a band, an infectious 60s-inspired soundtrack, Makaton signing and integrated cast.

GEOFF NORCOTT: BASIC BLOKE

On his sixth UK tour, Geoff Norcott will be trying to make sense of the current cultural and political scene with his playfully provocative brand of humour. Whether it's the dire blandness of the two main parties or the shamelessly shoe-horned right-on messages in adverts and films, Geoff will continue to tread in areas much of comedy leaves well alone. But this time around he also has a mission. As well as casting his everyman eye over what's happening in wider society, Geoff is trying to unpick what's happening with your average bloke. ENGLISH TOURING OPERA

Opera that moves

ROSSINI: CINDERELLA (LA CENERENTOLA)

Rossini's La Cenerentola is on the surface a joyous retelling of the Cinderella story, complete with a murderously wicked stepfather and astonishingly virtuosic vocal parts for Angelina (Cinderella) and Ramiro (the Prince). However, the triumph of goodness and kindness masks a more biting commentary on status and desire.

This new production is helmed by director and movement specialist Jenny Ogilvie and conductor Naomi Woo, with designs by Basia Bińkowska, winner of the 2017 Linbury Prize for stage design and creator of a beautiful set for The Little Prince at La Scala, Milan last year.

Performed in English with English surtitles.

MONTEVERDI: THE CORONATION OF POPPEA

Set at the court of the Emperor Nero as he schemes to replace his wife Octavia with his lover Poppea, Monteverdi's The Coronation of Poppea has a bleak and violent answer to the question "How far would you go for love?"

With startlingly modern music and characterisation, Monteverdi's opera was one of the first operatic masterpieces and a fitting showcase for a woman who cut a dash through the patriarchal world of ancient Rome.

Robin Norton-Hale directs this new production, with multi-genre musician and composer Yshani Perinpanayagam as conductor and arranger, and a new English translation of the libretto from poet and classicist Helen Eastman. Design comes from the award-winning Basia Bińkowska.

Performed in English with English surtitles.

ST DAVID'S PLAYERS PRESENT THE SORCERER

Gilbert set The Sorcerer in the little village of Ploverleigh in rural Devon. Sir Marmaduke Pointdextre, Lord of the Manor is casting his benevolent eye over the villagers who are celebrating the betrothal of his son Alexis to Aline. The villagers, in true English fashion, keep their emotions well hidden. Then John Wellington Wells is introduced to administer a love potion to the entire village and the gentle atmosphere is turned 'topsy turvy'. All the unmarried characters fall head over heels in love with the most socially unsuitable partners. As you might expect this mixture of "Keeping Up Appearances" and "Last of the Summer Wine" is enhanced by some wonderful melodies from Sullivan. Marvellous innocent fun with a political edge.

ACCESSIBLE THEATRE

We believe everyone should have the opportunity to experience live theatre. We are striving to make our theatre as accessible as possible and recognise that not all disabilities are visible.

AUDIO-DESCRIBED PERFORMANCE

Audio description is a live verbal commentary on the visual elements of a production as it unfolds. The description is delivered between the dialogue of a performance and anyone can listen to it via a headset. Audio-Described Performances are usually preceded by a touch tour. Please get in touch to find out start times.

NORTHCOTT THEATRE ACCESS

Wheelchair spaces are on row G, accessible via the lift. Please contact our Box Office directly to book these seats. Both entrances to the theatre have ramped access, and accessible toilets are located on level 1 (Box Office) and level 3 (row G).

There are 3 blue badge spaces on The Queen's Drive, directly outside the back entrance to the theatre and 10 spaces in car park C at the front.

Our Box Office and auditorium have an accessible hearing system, which transmits audio to hearing aids or specially provided headphones (which can be collected from the Box Office). The system can also be accessed via the Sennheiser MobileConnect app, which is available on both iOS and Android devices.

BARNFIELD THEATRE ACCESS

Wheelchair spaces are on row B. Please contact our Box Office directly to book these seats. The front of house and bar area are on street level and readily accessible. This is where the accessible toilet is located.

If you have access needs, you are entitled to a concession and/or a free carer ticket. If you have any access needs, please contact access@exeternorthcott.co.uk or speak to our Box Office team directly when booking your tickets and we'll gladly assist.

We welcome all assistance dogs including guide dogs, hearing dogs and service dogs.

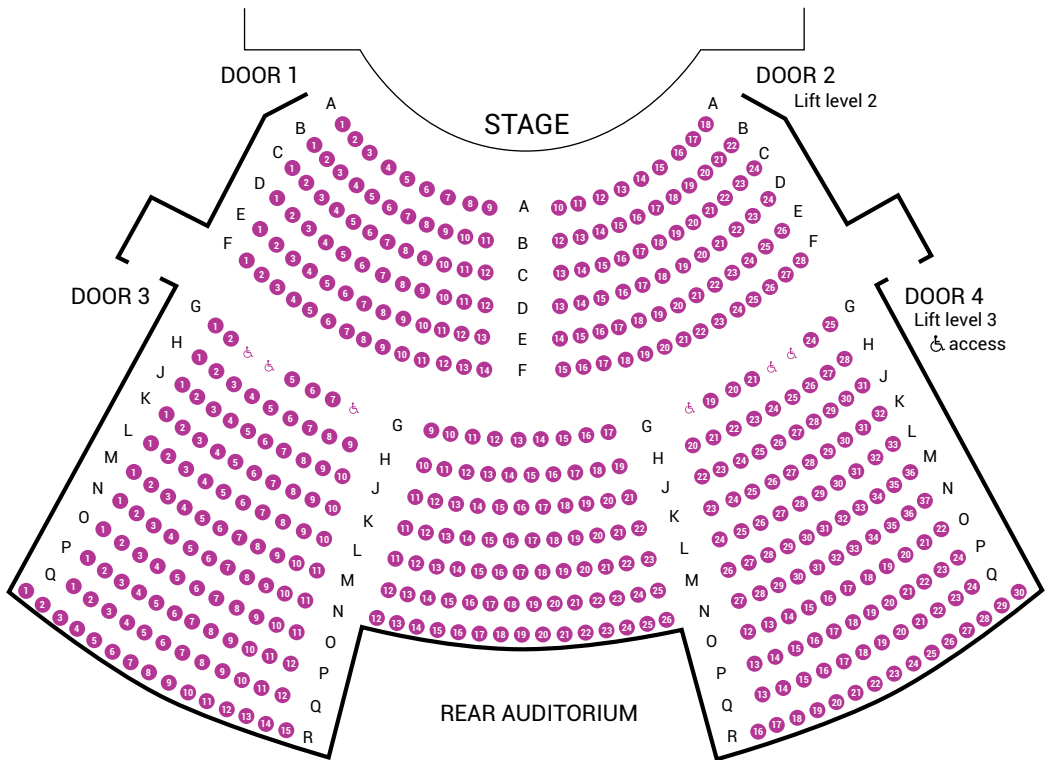

GETTING TO THE NORTHCOTT THEATRE

The Northcott Theatre is situated on the University of Exeter's Streatham Campus, on Stocker Road, postcode EX4 4QB.

The UNI bus, operated by Stagecoach, takes you from town right onto the theatre's doorstep.

All car parks on campus are operated by the University. Parking in car parks A, C and D is free on the weekend, and after 4pm on weekdays. All permit signs may be ignored at these times. Daytime parking is limited on weekdays, please check our website for the most up-to-date information.

NORTHCOTT THEATRE SEATING PLAN

For some performances, prices may vary depending on where you'd like to sit.

LEVEL ACCESS

Level access and wheelchair accessible spaces are located on row G (indicated by the ♿ icons).

If you wish to book one of these spaces, or have any other access requirements, please get in touch with our Box Office team, or email access@exeternorthcott.co.uk, to help us meet your access needs.

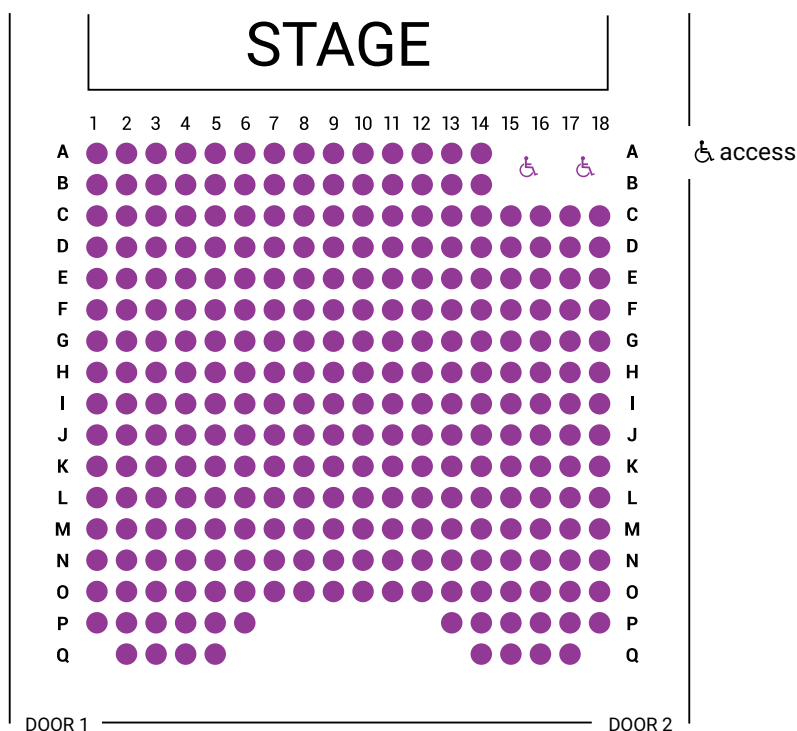

GETTING TO THE BARNFIELD THEATRE

The Barnfield Theatre is located on Barnfield Road in Exeter city centre – postcode EX1 1SN.

The Barnfield is an easy walk away from both the High Street and the bus station.

The nearest car parks are Magdalen Road Car Park and Magdalen Street Car Park (both open 24 hours) and Princesshay Car Parks 2 (open until 11pm) & 3 (open until 11.30pm). Up-to-date information on tariffs and charging periods for these car parks can be found on exeter.gov.uk.

GET CREATIVE

EVERY TIME YOU BUY A TICKET, GET A DRINK AT OUR BAR OR MAKE A DONATION. YOU SUPPORT THE WORK THE NORTHCOTT CHARITY DOES WITH YOUNG PEOPLE, LOCAL ARTISTS AND COMMUNITIES.

CREATIVE YOUNG PEOPLE

The Northcott Young Company (ages 9 – 16) and Young Creatives (ages 17 – 21) meet on a weekly basis in age-appropriate groups and under the guidance of our experienced tutors to develop their creativity and performance skills, explore themes, and devise new theatre to share with friends, family and the public, in a fun and inclusive way.

"NYC has built my confidence massively. It has helped me with drama in school. The people at NYC are my sort of people. They are kind, caring and respectful. They have the same interests as me."

NYC PARTICIPANT

"Thank you, and keep allowing those children who wouldn't ordinarily be given these opportunities the ability to live their future dreams."

PARENT OF NYC PARTICIPANT

"I always come home from NYC feeling happy."

ARTISTS & THEATRE MAKERS

Our Futures programme offers training opportunities for creatives looking to develop their artistic practice. The programme is designed specifically for early-career theatre makers and offers hands-on workshops and guidance, as well as performance opportunities.

The next Futures Festival is taking place 12 – 14 July. Find out more on page 7.

"It was lovely to meet other local creatives of a wide age range and experience. The workshop was supportive, inclusive, engaging and most of all great fun! I have come away with tools I can use in my future career and have grown in inspiration, curiosity, and confidence. Excited for the next one!"

DEVISING MASTERCLASS PARTICIPANT

"Every opportunity I think I've had in terms of work, in terms of connecting with others, has in some way come from connections made on the Futures programme, which is just amazing."

Encompass

A creative collaboration with some of our city's cultural and heritage communities, working together to make culture in Exeter more interesting, relevant, representative, accessible and appealing.

In October, Encompass will return to the Barnfield Theatre with Rhythms of Us, finding connection through music and dance.

"I didn't imagine having this space in Devon and I didn't know I needed it... it's been quite emotional really."

THE STORY OF US FESTIVAL PERFORMER

Creative Connections

A group of young adults with a range of learning and/or physical disabilities who celebrate their creativity by making pieces of theatre together.

In partnership with The Pelican Project and funded by the National Lottery Community Fund.

"It's great to be here with my son and also to explore things that we haven't tried before elsewhere. It's a really unique project."

PARENT OF CREATIVE CONNECTIONS PERFORMER

"I would love to do it again, it was fun."
