

I've just seen A Family Business so what can I do now?

- 1. Sign up to join the International Campaign to Abolish Nuclear Weapons (ICAN) icanw.org/join
- 2. Lobby the government
 - Get contact details of your government officials and encourage them to actively work towards nuclear disarmament.
 - Add your name to the petition to urge the government to scrap Britain's nuclear weapons system: cnduk.org/action-petition/wages-not-weapons
 - Start your own petition: petition.parliament.uk/petitions/check
- 3. Connect with local organisations dedicated to nuclear disarmament
 - Get involved by volunteering, donating, or signing their petitions.
 - Here is a list of local organisations in partnership with ICAN: icanw.org/united_kingdom#countries-list
- 4. Young people: join an existing school or university club
 - e.g Model UN, Debate Societies, Climate Change Clubs, Peace and Security Clubs, Law Societies, Amnesty International or Red Cross Clubs
 - Organise your own discussion or event in your local area, such as movie screenings or panel talks
 - Learn more at the UN's Youth4Disarmament programme here: youth4disarmament.org
- 5. Educate yourself on nuclear disarmament and start conversations with your friends & family
